DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—Mother Could Hardly Expect Any More.

BY F. LEIPZIGER

Practice Sobriety

If thou well observe
The rule of Not Too Much; by temperance taught,
In what thou eat'st and drink'st; seeking from thence
Due nourishment, not gluttonous delight;
So may'st thou live, till, like ripe fruit, thou drop Into thy mother's lap. —Paradise Lost.

Sobriety is a cardinal virtue and should be practiced by all men. With the exception of the Prohibitionists (and their theory as well as their practice is decidedly intemperate), the vast majority of Americans are abstemious in their habits and use stimulants moderately. Men who cannot control their appetites should not imbibe at all. A brew like our may be safely and beneficially taken by those who know how to use the good things of earth. Mind you, we mean GOOD beer. The other kind won't do at all.

Half Stock Ale

No such thing as "rubber roofing"

A lot of manufacturers call their roofing "Rubber Roofing," "Rubberine," "Rubberoid"—Rubber this and Rubber that. The life is all out of rubber if exposed to the daylight for six months. ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville, July 19.—On Friday morning last the suffragettes from Cragsmoor were in Ellenville and held a conference with the suffragists for the purpose of starting a canvass to determine the sentiment of the electorate and in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock a parlor meeting was held at the McElhone home.

On Sunday morning at the M. E. Church Mayor Palmer Canfield, Jr., of Kingston delivered a very excellent address in the interest of the Ulster County Bible Association and was listened to with very marked attention and well received, and a number in the congregation responded to the call to become members of the association.

At the Reformed Church, the Rev. William Berg, delivered two excellent sermons, which were well received by the large congregation. On Sunday next the Rev. Donald Boyce of Westerlo will occupy the pulpit.

At the special election at Firemen's Hall on Thursday last the proposition to purchase the brick school house, after thoroughly renovating, for a town hall, lock-up, and to house the public library, was defeated. A very small vote was polled for the village. Many in favor of the proposition were not at the polls.

On Sunday evening next at the M. E. Church, William Pollard, of Newark, N. J., spending the summer in Ellenville, will have charge of the service, which is to be a patriotic service, especially devoted to Abraham Lincoln.

On Friday evening the calendar socials for the months of July and August will be held in the M. E. Church lecture room, under the direction of Mrs. V. T. Wright and Mrs. George F. Andrews. The ladies urge all members of calendar and friends to attend and promise a very pleasant and profitable evening.

Mrs. Edwin J. Bailey was quite seriously injured about the head Friday when an automobile in which she and her husband were riding with friends, went wrong, throwing the occupants of car out on the road near Napanoch.

The event of the week is the lawn festival to be held on the handsome grounds of the Scoresby home, given by the Scoresby Hose, Hook and Ladder Company. A very fine musical program under the direction of Mrs. John R. DeVany will be given Thursday evening. All friends of the fire ladders will be welcomed to the coming event.

Thrown From a Car.

Miss Minnie Hamilton was thrown from a Broadway car at the corner of Broadway and Ferry street Sunday evening and sustained an ugly scalp wound besides being badly shaken up. She had boarded the car with a young nephew at the Sleighs-burg ferry and as the car was full she was forced to stand on the front platform. As it was raining she was advised by the motorman to step inside and so she stood between the front seats of the car and held her balance by clinging to the brass rod which protects the glass window on the front of the car. As the car was going around the turn at Broadway and Ferry street in front of the old Freeman office it went with such force that Miss Hamilton was thrown out on the pavement, striking on the back of her head and ruining her new dress which she wore. Besides sustaining other bruises, she received a very bad scalp wound. She was picked up and placed in the car and taken to the residence of Mrs. Charles McBride on Van Buren street, for whom she had been working. She was so badly shaken up that she was forced to remain in bed today.

The Growing Age.

According to Dr. Lindsay Wynnecoop, boys and girls between ten and sixteen years of age need a great deal of sleep. Laziness, he declares, is an indication that they are growing. Poor marks in school, he avers, are not so serious as many parents are wont to believe.

TOWER OF BABEL.

Its Remnants Are Believed to Stand Near Babylon's Ruins.

It is doubtful if there is any place in the world so rich in ancient remains as the valley of the Euphrates, in Mesopotamia. The result is that to archaeologists and scholars the place is a veritable "Tom Tiddler's ground," and new "finds" are constantly being reported.

When it is remembered that tradition places the site of the Garden of Eden here, while among its many ruins are those of ancient Babylon, the promising nature of the valley to the scientific excavator becomes apparent. It is near the ruins of Babylon that we find what many scholars believe to be the remains of the tower of Babel—an immense cube of brickwork, called by the natives Birs Nimrud.

Recent exhaustive examination of the strange pile and its site has revealed the fact that the tower that once stood here consisted of seven stages of brickwork on an earthen platform, each being of a different color.

The tower boasted of a base measurement of nearly 900 square feet and rose to an unknown height. Even today the ruins rise some 160 feet above the level of the surrounding plain.—Wide World Magazine.

WHEN YOUTH DIES.

Shock of the First Realization That One Is Getting Old.

The moment when one first feels acutely that he is no longer young is bound to make one pause in something akin to consternation. For vividness it is like a flash of lightning across a black sky. Life no longer is all before one; even, more dreadful thought, it may be mostly behind.

After the first keen realization there follows a bewildered state of mind due to unwillingness—yes, to an actual puzzled inability to accept the truth. With all the agony of the startled call of a child at night the heart cries out, "It cannot be; it is not so."

Youth dies hard and fights and struggles in its dying like an imprisoned bird. Others, even those near and dear, are older, are even old; we can see that. But how can the stubborn facts be true as to ourselves? Very gradually, little by little, fighting its way inch by inch, the truth prevails and gnaws at the heart—though only intermittently, of course—until time numbs this emotion as it does every other one.—Robert L. Raymond in Atlantic Monthly.

Poetry and Noses.

I have read that no poem was ever written to a nose. Can you, offhand, recall a single rapturous or even admiring description of one? I search my memory in vain, but produce instead one instance that has always interested me by neglect. You recall that little poem of Browning's, "A Face," the brief and charming description of a girl's profile against a background of gold. The "matchless mold" of softly parted lips, the neck "three fingers might surround" and the "fruit shaped perfect chin" all receive their due of praise; the nose, a seeming necessity in any profile, is not even mentioned. It may be as well; each reader supplies in the lovely face the line that suits him best. The poet may have feared that by its mere mention he would produce the effect too often given by the nose in real life—a heaviness that mars an otherwise charming face.—Atlantic.

Decomposing Water.

Water is decomposed or separated into its constituent gases by passing a continuous current of electricity through it. An ordinary zinc and copper voltaic battery gives sufficient amperage and also voltage to separate the oxygen and hydrogen. Oxygen goes to the pole connected with the copper plate and hydrogen to the zinc pole or plate. The volume of hydrogen is double that of the oxygen, and both are chemically pure. Steam, if passed over red hot iron, surrenders its oxygen to the atoms of the metal, while hydrogen is given off pure and free.—New York American.

Bad Memory.

Fiatbush—You've got a piece of thread about your thumb.
Bensonhurst—Yes, wife put it there to remind me to mail her letter.
"Did you mail it?"
"Sure thing."
"Why don't you remove the thread then?"
"Oh, I'm keeping that on to remind me to tell her that I forgot to put a stamp on it."—Yonkers Statesman.

A Hasty Makeup.

An actor once was cast as a brigand in "Ingomar," and the director told him to get a rug, throw it about his shoulders and sit by a camp fire. He did so, his face being toward the audience. In a tense situation he stood up, turned around and almost broke up the show. Worked in the rug was one word, "Welcome!"—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Guessed It.

Inspector, examining a class in grammar, wrote a sentence on the blackboard and asked if any one noticed anything peculiar in it.
After a short silence a small boy exclaimed:
"Yes, sir; the bad writing."—Exchange.

Overcoming Difficulties.

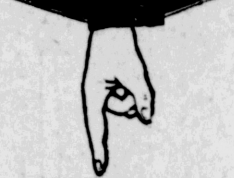

"I find nothing so singular in life as this, that everything opposing appears to lose its substance the moment one actually grapples with it."—Hawthorne.

None but the ill bred ridicule the peculiarities of others.

Pointer for the Worker.

If a clock goes struttily nobody knows the time of day; and if your allotted task is a necessary link in the chain of another man's work, you are his clock and he ought to be able to rely on you.—John Stuart Blackie.

DR. ANNA HOWARD SHAW

SUFFRAGETTE AUTO GETS DR. SHAW IN TROUBLE.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw.

Philadelphia, July 19.—That beautiful yellow suffrage auto, "Eastern Victory," presented to Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, is getting her into a lot of trouble. First the auto was seized by the horrid Delaware county authorities as security for taxes, which Dr. Shaw has refused to pay, arguing as per our revolutionary forefathers "No taxation without representation." Represented or not, they took the auto and are still holding it. Now, Dr. Shaw's chauffeur comes forward and says the suffrage president has not paid him his salary for guiding the destinies of "Eastern Victory" along the highways and byways.

The auto is to be sold at auction at Media on July 24, say the authorities. The chauffeur says he wants his money right away. Dr. Shaw is seeking an injunction to prevent the sale.

China's Great River.

The Yangtze-Kiang, or Yangtze river, is as long as the Mississippi and is far more important as a highway of commerce. From the great port of Shanghai as far inland as the important city of Hankow, a distance of 600 miles, the Yangtze is navigable for ocean going vessels. For the greater portion of this distance the river is very broad, and for some of the journey a passenger in a boat in midstream would be unable to see either shore distinctly. From Hankow to Ichang, 280 miles farther, the Yangtze is navigable for small river steamers, and from Ichang up to Pingshanhsien, nearly 1,000 miles, it is in great part navigable. Some of the passenger steamers plying between Shanghai and Hankow are exceedingly modern and comfortable. Thousands of sailing craft are seen on the river daily on a trip between these two points and numbers of huge rafts which require each a whole village to bring them and their contents to the distant market. The Yangtze has many important tributaries. One of these, the Hanho, which flows into the Yangtze at Hankow, is itself navigable for 600 miles.

The President's Title.

In spite of our traditions and our pretensions Americans dearly love a title. It's a fair guess that a larger part of the mail that goes to the White House is addressed to "His Excellency" or "His Eminence" or "His Honor." As a matter of fact his title is The President of the United States. That is title so great that the fathers decided that to add to it would be to detract from it. The fathers were wise. Taking their cue from the federal practice the constitution makers nor the statute makers of New York ever gave the chief executive of this commonwealth other title than the governor of New York. Every governor of the state has been content with that. Address him so in letter or in speech and you are right. Decorate him with an "excellency" or an "honor" and you are wrong. The governor of Massachusetts is His Excellency by warrant of the constitution of 1780, but he is the only excellency we have in America.—New York Sun.

Buffoonery in "Hamlet."

The buffoonery once tolerated in provincial theaters is illustrated in an anecdote set forth in the memoirs of Barry Sullivan. Wright, who was the first gravedigger, prepared himself to take the house by storm by having incensed his person within a dozen or more waistcoats of all sorts of shapes and patterns. When about to commence the operation of digging the grave for the fair Ophelia Wright began to unwind by taking off waistcoat after waistcoat, which caused uproarious laughter among the audience. But as fast as he relieved himself of one waistcoat Paul Bedford, the second gravedigger, incensed himself in the stuff vests, which increased the salvo of laughter, for as Wright was getting thinner Paul grew fatter and fatter. Wright, seeing himself outdone, kept on the reminder of the waistcoats and went on with his part quite crestfallen.

His Best.

A small boy, who had been allowed to run much in the streets, had so improved his opportunities that before he was five years old it was commonly said by the neighbors that he swore like a little pirate. Parental discipline did not avail to break him of the habit.

One day when he was to visit his grandmother in the next street he was implored by his mother to behave himself properly, and especially not to indulge in bad language. He promised to try to remember. On his return at night the anxious mother asked if he had been a good boy. He replied emphatically that he had, clinching the statement by adding:
"I only called grandma an old devil twice all day."—New York Post.

Languages.

The French, Spanish, Italian and Portuguese languages (known as the "romance" languages) are offshoots of the old Latin and are to a considerable extent founded upon it, while the German and English tongues grew up quite apart from the Latin. That is why the Scandinavian, Dutch, German and English languages (which, like the peoples themselves, are closely related) are so scant in Latin words and derivations.—New York American.

Hope.

"Yes, she rejected me, but she did it in a most encouraging way."
"How was that?"
"As I went away she pointed to the footprints that I had made on the carpet and said, 'The next time you come to propose to me I want you to wipe your shoes clean!'"—Der Guckkasten.

China's Tea and Rice.

China has three crops of tea—the spring crop in April, the second in May and the "even flower" crop about the 1st of July. The export season is throughout the year. Three crops of rice are harvested. Export of this product is prohibited.

A Loving Couple.

"How many lumps of sugar, George?" asked the wife.
"Oh, have your own sweet way, as usual, dear," replied the husband.—Yonkers Statesman.

Fountain of Youth.

She—Old Mrs. Butterbus seems to be a fountain of youth in spite of her years. Sheba—At any rate she's always gushing.—Chaparral.

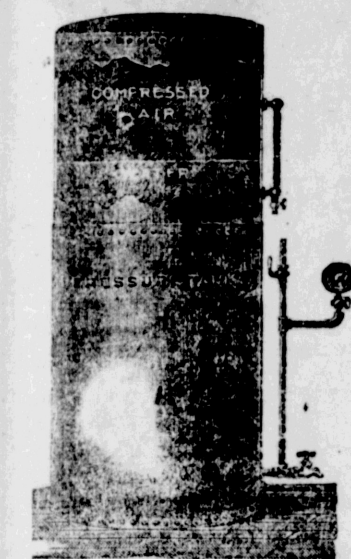

Ask your friends for advice, women for pity, strangers for charity and your relatives for nothing.—Spanish Proverb.

EXAMINING PHYSICIANS.

Judge Clearwater Points Out a New Provision of the Law.

To the Editor of The Sun—Sir:
Without expression of opinion regarding the case of Thaw, and referring to Judge Hendrick's allusion to the testimony of alienists, I beg to call your attention to an amendment to the judicial law which so recently went into effect that its passage may not generally be known to the bench, the bar, physicians and the laity. It is Chapter 295 of the Laws of 1915 and is the result of five years' effort on the part of the New York State Bar Association, the New York Academy of Medicine, the New York State Medical Society and the State Homoeopathic Society. It reads
as follows:

Section 1. Chapter XXXV. of the Laws of 1909, entitled "An act in relation to the administration of justice, constituting Chapter XXX. of the Consolidated Laws," is hereby amended by inserting therein a new section after section 30 thereof, to be section 31, to read as follows:

"Examining Physicians. In a criminal action or proceeding or in a special proceeding instituted by the State writ of habeas corpus or certiorari to inquire into the cause of detention, in which the soundness of mind of a person is in issue, the court in which the judge or justice before whom the action or special proceeding is pending may appoint not more than three disinterested competent physicians to examine such person as to his soundness of mind at the time of the examination.
Any such examining physician may be sworn as a witness at the instance of any party to the action or proceeding. The compensation of such examining physician for making such examination and testifying,
when certified by the presiding judge or justice of the court or judge or justice making the appointment, shall be paid out of any funds available for the payment of and in the same manner as other court expenses."

Under this act the judge before whom the action or proceeding is pending is free to make his own selection of disinterested, competent physicians to examine the person whose soundness of mind is in issue, the object being to guard against the precise evil of which Justice Hendrick spoke.

I very much doubt whether, as has been suggested, judges will degrade the administration of justice by selecting relatives or personal friends solely to donate the fee. The statement that they will do so is predicted upon a distorted view of the way in which customarily they discharge their important duties.

sociation.

FORGER SKIPS AFTER ARREST

No trace of the boy who stole a check from F. E. Wieber has yet been found, since he was set at liberty by the police. He entered the building and took some letters from Mr. Wieber's desk. One of these contained a check which Mr. Wieber had made out and sent to liquidate a bill. This was cashed by a local baker after the boy, who is 18 years old, had forged an indorsement. After considerable work by the police and Mr. Wieber the boy was located and confessed to both breaking in and forging the endorsement. He was taken to police headquarters and released on his own recognizance. Since then nothing has been heard from him. He will probably return together with "Doc" Waterbury.

Navigation Notes.

Handy Men of Iceland.

There are no trades or guilds in Iceland, every man being compelled to depend upon his own skill for his supplies. The natives make their own shoes, shoe their own horses and manufacture their saddles. A few artisans are found in the capital—for example, a bookbinder, a jeweler and others.

SUDDEN RISE IN ESOPUS CREEK

A sudden rise in the Esopus creek on Sunday following the opening of the gates of the Ashokan reservoir caused considerable damage to the camps at Legg's Mills and endangered the lives of a number of children who were playing in the water.

Within a few minutes after the water began to rise, the stream became a turbulent torrent, which swept campers' boats from their moorings and damaged steps and boats which were believed to have been fastened securely. Some of the boats were swamped and others were swept nearly a mile down stream.

Near Hurley a picnic party had become separated, one woman and her two children having rowed to the opposite shore to gather wild flowers. They were about to return when the current suddenly became so swift that they were unable to control the boat's course and the boat was carried nearly a mile toward Kingston before the occupants could seize bushes along the shore and bring themselves to a place of safety on the bank.

LOCAL BASEBALL DOINGS.

Games Played or to be Played by the Home Teams.

The Wilbur Feds met defeat at the hands of High Falls on Sunday afternoon by the score of 19 to 1. The Feds were not in the best condition after their strenuous ten inning game at Mohonk on Saturday, which latter team won by the score of 1 to 0. The Feds were still a little tired after their ride and High Falls took advantage of their weakness.

The Mystic baseball team of this city journeyed to Rhinecliff Sunday to be beaten by the Rhinecliff team by a score of 3 to 1. It was a pitcher's duel throughout the game, Mulvey shading Doyle a trifle. On October 8 these two teams will meet again and as each team has won a game this season they expect to have a very fast and exciting game. The score: Mystic—0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—1; Rhinecliff—1 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0—3. Batteries—Mystic, Doyle and McMahon; Rhinecliff, Mulvey and Atkins.

The All-Kingston baseball club, and the Catskill team clashed at Catskill on Saturday the result being another tie after eleven innings of classy and snappy ball. This makes the second tie played between these two teams within a month, the first game ending at six all. The features of Saturday's game was the pitching of Culliton and hitting of Ortizlar for the locals and the battery work of Fliester and Macholdt for the Catskill Club. The score by innings follows: All Kingston 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1; Catskill 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1. Batteries for Kingston—Culliton and Sansbury; for Catskill—Fliester and Macholdt. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, July 19.—The market opened at almost general declines, due to various reports. The statement by a member of the executive committee of the Crucible Steel Company that dividends on the common stock were not in sight, caused a drop of 6 1/2 points in that stock in the first few minutes. That stock later rallied 2 points. Other losses were Westinghouse 2 points, United States Steel Common 1 1/2; American Locomotive 1 1/2; Southern Pacific and St. Paul 1/2. Reading 3/4. Amalgamated Copper 3/4, while others lost from 1/2 to one point. Bethlehem Steel opened 3/4 higher and Republic Iron and Steel was another exception gaining 3/4. Colorado Fuel improved 3/4. At the end of the first ten minutes the market continued confused, American Can after selling off 1 1/2 recovered about half the loss. U. S. Steel rallied nearly a point from the low figure. Baldwin Locomotive declined 2 points at the opening and later sold off an additional point. Baltimore & Ohio, Anaconda Copper, Pressed Steel Car and Central Leather opened at or a shade above Saturday's final figures.

Noon.—The tone was steady in the late forenoon with little change in prices of the leading issues. The railway issues scored fractional gains, Reading advancing 3/4 to 146 3/4 and Union Pacific 1/2 to 126 1/2. Southern Pacific sold up 1/2 to 84, a gain of 1 1/2 for the morning. Pennsylvania was up 1/4 to 196, and other fractional advances were noted in the low priced railway issues. Baldwin Locomotive and Crucible Steel made slight rallies, the former advancing a point, due to war orders received by the company. Money loaning at 2 per cent.

The war stocks were the feature of the market in the first half of the last hour. Crucible Steel shaded its best bid sold around 43 1/2 against 42 1/2 at the opening. Westinghouse sold around 191, a point under its opening. Reading and Southern Pacific made gains of more than a point. The list had a mixed appearance but the tone was steady.

The stock market closed heavy. Governments unchanged; other bonds dull.

At this season of the year a great many young apple, pear, plum, cherry and peach trees are infested with aphids or lice. These are found on the ends of the twigs. They work on the underside of the leaves, causing them to curl sometimes into dense irregular clusters, they also attack the growing shoots stopping the growth and causing the tips to curl back deforming the branches. Some of the lice have wings so that they easily spread from one tree to another. On young trees, unless controlled, they do serious injury.

They are sucking insects, consequently no poison applied to the leaves will affect them. They must be killed with a contact insecticide, that is, a material which hits their bodies and causes their death.

Black Leaf 40 may be used at the rate of 1 pint of Black Leaf 40 to 800 gallons of water and 3 pounds of soap. On a small scale that would be at the rate of 2 tablespoonsful of Black Leaf 40 to six gallons of water in which a piece of soap has been rubbed with the hands, until the water appears soapy.

Another remedy is to dissolve 1 pound of Ivory soap in 7 gallons of water. With either of these remedies, where the twigs are small, it is best to put the material in a pail, bend the branches over, pour them around in the spray material. If the branches are too large to be bent easily, a sponge may be used to saturate the parts affected with the spray material.

Fire Caused by Magnifying Glass. A house was nearly burned down in New York recently because someone laid left a magnifying glass leaning against a window looking basket. The glass caught the rays of the noon sun, focused them on the inflammable material in the basket, a blaze followed, and before the firemen put it out $800 damage had resulted.

Rusty-Nail Wound. Wash the foot and wound with warm water and soap. Thoroughly cleanse the wound with peroxide, then with alcohol, and paint with several coats of tincture of iodine.

COUNTY FARM BUREAU COMMENTS

The will of Tamer Meeker of this city has been admitted to probate by Surrogate Gill in surrogate's court. The testatrix gives her estate to her daughter, Caroline V. Ackerly, whom she appoints executrix. The will was executed January 17, 1911, and witnessed by Fred Carpenter and Harry A. Jones, both of this city. The value of the real estate is $2,500 and the personal property amounts to $800, consisting of household furniture valued at $500 and a savings bank deposit of $300. J. DePuy Hasbrouck appeared for the executrix and Daniel B. Deyo as special guardian.

The will of Edwin Hoyt of the town of Woodstock was admitted to probate. The testatrix gives his estate to his wife, Lizzie Hoyt, except his interest in a house owned jointly by himself and his brother, Daniel, which interest is given to his brother, who is also to receive his share of tools. John B. Hoyt is appointed executor. The will was executed November 4, 1914, and witnessed by F. W. Burhans and John B. Hoyt, both of Shady. The value of the real estate is $1,000 and the personal property amounts to $25. Milton O. Auchmoody appeared for the executor and Daniel B. Deyo for other interested parties.

MATTERS BEFORE THE SURROGATE

In the estate of Frederick Urbahn of the town of Lloyd, an order was granted declaring the estate exempt from tax under the taxable transfer act. Solomon G. Carpenter appeared for John B. Demsky, the executor.

Opportunity's Gates Open. We may be sure that the typical American story of the rise from small beginnings to substantial achievements has not been told for the last time. The conditions which under the telling possible still exist, says the Philadelphia Ledger. For those who leave college as well as for those who lack this preparation for the struggle of life, the path is paved with chances which insight, pluck and perseverance can change to solid success.

Mohonk Wins From Wilbur.

Mohonk Lake, July 19.—A large and enthusiastic crowd witnessed here Saturday afternoon a ball game, the equal of which is rarely seen outside the big cities. For nine thrilling innings Wilbur and Mohonk battled without a runner crossing the plate. Mohonk's winning run came in the last half of the tenth when Delamater's two-bagger and Churchill's single proved too much for the visitors. The fielding and pitching on both sides was brilliant. The score:

Mohonk	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Turner, 3b.	5	0	1	3	1	0
Fletcher, 1b.	5	0	2	10	0	0

Benefactor of Mankind. It may be finally said of John Harison, English inventor, that by the invention of his chronometer—the ever sleepless and ever-trusty friend of the mariner—he conferred an incalculable benefit on science and navigation, and established his claim to be regarded as one of the greatest benefactors of mankind.

Nature's Protection. It is a curious fact that when a fish becomes blind it turns almost black in color. Nature's efforts toward protective coloring tends to make the color it sees in its surroundings. Fish in a pool with light-colored walls will be much lighter in color than those of the same species where the surroundings are dark.

Dangerous Nitroglycerin.

Nitroglycerin is a fearfully dangerous explosive and at a temperature of only 100 degrees—that is, very little more than the warmth of the human body—it begins to decompose.

Tons of nitroglycerin are turned out every day, for it is the explosive from which gunpowder is made. But all the mixing vats are artificially cooled by coils of cold water pipes.

The cleaner nitroglycerin is made the less the danger. Consequently it undergoes any number of washings before it is fit for use. In the earlier days of its manufacture nitroglycerin waste water was allowed to run away through open drains, or into streams. It was not realized that this waste constituted a source of danger until, one day, a flash of lightning, striking ground near a factory, which was soaked with this compound, caused a fearful explosion. A cavity twenty feet deep was blown in the earth, and the factory itself, although fully 200 yards away, was practically demolished.—London Answers.

Little Children.

The influence of little children is to develop goodness in men and women. Their example teaches love, hope, faith, trust, contentment, joy, delight and cheerfulness, and quickly to forgive and forget unkindness, injustice and injury received from others.

MENKE'S DAILY SPORTING LETTER

(By Frank G. Menke.)

The Giants remind one of the Russian army. Beaten to a frazzle on numerous occasions, its doughty leader continues to issue official bulletin stating that the beating was suffered for strategic reasons—reasons only, and asking the public to "wait until we get started."

Women want to be enfranchised. They claim they have as much right to vote as men. They assert they are just as brainy. And then they go and wear furs in the summer.

Everybody's beginning to feel sorry for Tom Cowler, the Australian heavyweight, who was brought to these shores by one James J. Corbett. The sorrow isn't occasioned by Cowler's fighting. He looks like a battler. But the folks here are sorry for him because Jim Corbett has jinxed him. Jim calls him "the coming heavyweight champion of the world." Jim ranks as the worst little picker in the country. Gamblers always wait until Jim picks his winner for a coming fight and then they bet on the other fellow and they usually cash their bets.

And now Jim picks Tom Cowler to win the heavyweight championship at some future date. Poor Thomas.

Benny Kauff is more to be pitied than censured. The praise heaped upon him during the past year went to his head and caused him to become afflicted with one of the most exaggerated cases of ego in baseball history.

Benny may recover and he may not. But even if he does he has lost for all time the high esteem in which the fans once held him.

Windeck Zbyszko is his name the wrestler who never has lost a fall. He's a brother of Stanislaus Zbyszko and he promises to be a more famous grappler than his brother, who is now a prisoner of war in the hands of the Russians.

Windeck is 6 feet and ½ of an inch tall. He's 22 years old and weighs 230 pounds. In a year or so he'll beam around 250 because he hasn't reached his full development to date.

Windeck studied law and medicine in Vienna. But he wanted to be a wrestler and a wrestler he is. He won a large flock of medals and huge bundles of cash in Europe. Then he came to New York and continued in his winning ways.

The town of Seattle became considerably peeved recently when some golfing person said that it rained so much in the Washington metropolis that a golfer needed a rowboat in going around the course.

And so Seattle has come to the fore with facts and figures to show that Seattle's average rainfall is less than in any other city of size in the United States.

The baseball "experts" didn't think much of the 1915 pennant chances of the White Sox after they learned that a bushier manager was to lead the team. But this bushier person—Clarence Henry Rowland by name—seems to be doing so well that the White Sox fans are making world series reservations already.

"Baseball," remarks John Tener, "is undergoing a change. The magnates think it a sort of short change after gazing into the club coffers."

An umpire in one of the western towns believes in the "Safety First" rule. When he took his position behind the bat in a recent game a Winchester rifle was slung under his arm and an automatic bulged from his hip pocket.

In the meantime, what's become of Jack Johnson? His sudden slipping beyond the pugilistic horizon has been one of the surprising events in the modern history of pugilism. No ex-champion has dropped so completely out of sight—and of mind—as has the "Big Smoke" since that Havana affair.

Honus Wagner made his 100th home run the other day—and it was his first four baser of the season. The record of Wagner shows that he hasn't gone in for establishing records in the circuit smash line.

Dooover a 19 year stretch the "flying Dutchman" has made only 100 home runs—an average of only a trifle more than 5 per season. His biggest year was in 1898 when he got 11 homers. His next best year was in 1908 when he made 10.

Wagner made only one home run during the 1914 season and only 3 in 1913.

Two months more and the mole-skins will be dragged forth from the lockers, the footballers will begin footballing and the doctors will be holding themselves in readiness for hurry up calls.

Swallowed a Ring.

Gladys Mackey, five years old, of Highland swallowed a ring on Friday and it slipped down the throat, lodging in the windpipe. She was taken to Vassar Hospital in Poughkeepsie where an X ray was taken and the ring removed by Dr. Becker.

Besides the many Kingston people who went to the park for a breath of air the steamer Trojan brought about 5,000 people from Albany and Troy. They returned in the afternoon on the Rensselaer.

Daily Thought.

Kind looks, kind words, kind acts and warm handshakes—these are a secondary means of grace when men are in trouble and fighting their un- seen battles.—Dr. John Hall.

HUGH JENNINGS' START

Was Backstop for Pennsylvania Team When Discovered.

Placed on First Base by Manager Chapman of Louisville and began by Banging the Ball Merrily to All Corners.

Back in the summer of 1891 a young chap with carmine-colored hair and a face silken all over with polka dots was catching for a baseball team representing Leighton, Pa., where he had signed that spring. Leighton was, at that time, a beautiful place of 3,000 inhabitants, but this young man was somewhat lost in that community, for of the 3,000 residents all were Dutch except two, an Irish saloonkeeper and his sister, and Hughie Jennings, having considerable Irish blood coursing through his system, was a welcome addition to this very small Irish colony.

In the month of June a certain baseball fan—in fact, he was a director of one of the clubs in a small Pennsylvania state league—sent a tip to Jack Chapman of the Louisville club of the American association concerning this young catcher, stating that, if he would sign him, in less than a month he would prove the equal of the best player Chapman had on his line-up. The wise Chapman must have had faith in this unknown fan, for he promptly sent $100 to young Jennings with orders to report at once. Hughie thought it must be a joke, but on examining the coin he found it real money and he made up his mind to go.

Hughie Jennings' days as a catcher ended the moment he donned a Louisville uniform. Chapman didn't just know what to do with this tow-headed bushier after he got him, but he had invested one hundred cold dollars in the deal and felt that he must have the youngster earn it if possible, and Manager Hugh Jennings.

Hughie was dead willing to work it out. Opportunity came tripping his way, for First Baseman Taylor was injured about that time, and Chapman plunked the raw recruit on the initial sack. It was on June 6, 1891, that the now famous manager of the Detroit Tigers played his first game in the majors, and the contest was against the Baltimore team. The first big league hurler who faced Hughie, or whom Hughie faced, wasn't very big. A little bit of a left-hander of the name of Madden was the pitcher and Louisville made only four hits, the Leighton recruit getting one of them. In his next game Jennings made three safe hits in four times up off the pitching of the noted McMahon and he continued to bang the ball right merrily during the balance of that season.

Picks Tigers to Win.

"If the Tigers don't win the pennant this season," said Bill Donovan in a fanning bee, "they all ought to be arrested and put in jail. I've looked at all the clubs, and Detroit is the class of the league. Any pitcher that has behind him the sort of hitting that my old mates are giving ought to be fighting to get in there instead of wondering when his turn comes. Chicago looks pretty good, but was lucky against us. Boston hasn't got Detroit's offense. There are no other teams to consider, as far as the flag is concerned."

Oddities of the Game.

Just showing the oddities of the game. On the same day that Mickey Kellher, playing first for Worcester in the New England league, went through nine innings without a chance being offered him. Shorten, playing the outfield for Providence in the International, had 12 putouts and an assist.

Scott Makes World's Record.

For extremes, take Everett Scott, Boston Red Sox shortstop, who recently handled 143 chances in 24 games without an error, and the Winnipeg club of Northern association, which accumulated 88 errors in 17 consecutive games. It is believed Scott established a new world's record.

Paddock Leading Slugger.

Del Paddock, a former member of the White Sox, is now hitting over .400 in the American association. He is leading the big minor league and is a member of the St. Paul team.

Nothing New.

"These South Sea Islanders are a queer lot. They have many things which are taboo, mustn't be touched." "I see nothing strange about that. It is the same principle on which we carefully plant a lot of grass for people to keep off of."

HOT WEATHER STRIKES NEW YORK

WHAT CARE WE FOR HOT WEATHER?

The hot wave which struck New York drove all those who could afford it to the beaches, but the little street urchins had to devise their own methods of cooling off. Here are shown three little lads who "soused" each other with buckets of cooling water.

Knew Her Name.

I had occasion to pass a little boy a good many times one afternoon. He was sitting on the steps and although we were strangers each time I passed he greeted with me with, "Hello," and I responded likewise. Finally the last time I passed by he said, "I know what your name is," and upon inquiring what he said: "Mrs. Going Back and Forth."—Exchange.

Foodstuffs Contaminated.

A piece of cake was exposed for sale in Philadelphia without adequate protection, then analyzed. It contained sand and coal dust, disintegrated bran fragments, human hair, wood fragments, black and yellow cotton fibers, white, black, blue, yellow and green straw partly disintegrated, cobwebs, pine and other wood fragments and bits of iron rust.

Think Brightness.

Brightness and happiness in the mind bring brightness and happiness in our lives. The future is but the reflection of our present thoughts. We can bring either sunshine or darkness in the future by thinking brightness or gloom now. So, let the model of our futures be full of light and joy if we are to insure these qualities for ourselves.
